

Supplementary Figure A. Total Expenditure on Health in the U.K. and Comparator Countries as a Percent of GDP and Average Annual Growth.

Note: U.K. values from 2013-2016 are shown as represented by the Office for National Statistics (blue line) and the OECD (grey line). These two lines represent health spending in the UK as it is currently classified (OECD/grey line) and as it was previously classified (ONS/blue line).

Supplementary Figure B. Total Number of Foreign Trained Workforce in the U.K.

Left: Total Number of Foreign Trained Doctors in the U.K.; Right: Stock of foreign-trained nurses in the U.K. All data are presented in foreign trained workforce coming from nations belonging to the European Union, nations not belonging to the European Union, and Total

Supplementary Figure C. Remuneration of Healthcare Workforce in the U.K. and Comparator Countries

